Second Week of Lent

HOW ARE WE TO BE ANOTHER'S KEEPER?

A Serving People

As we begin the second week of Lent our focus is upon our vocation to share in the mission of Jesus Christ.

At our Confirmation the Holy Spirit bestowed upon us his gifts and sealed our Baptismal commitment to be witnesses in our world.

What does it mean to witness with and to Jesus Christ? First there is the inner witness - a kind of passive stance whereby we receive and listen to His Spirit and so come to understand the truth about God, Christ and the Gospel. Sources like prayer, meditation, reflection and study, thoughtful pondering of the Word of God in Scripture and the teachings of the Church would be one way to receive this truth.

Then there is an exterior witness in which through the promptings of the Spirit we become vehicles of truth. The apostolate, the missionary awareness to which our faith calls us is an impulse to bear witness to that faith, to spread it.

How many of us feel this loving and generous zeal to build up Christ's Church in collaboration with Him?

There are innumerable forms which this work of building up the Church takes as it becomes the visible social and historical sign of the motion of the Spirit in the hearts of those of us who consider ourselves Christian.

As the Gospel states so clearly - our love for God can only be measured by our love for our fellowmen and women here in the world. That love is real only if we are practically interested in other's welfare, their social and political freedom, their economic condition whether or not they have a decent place to live, enough to eat, a chance at education. That love also prompts us to be concerned about sharing the Good News, praying with and for others, seeking personal and communal renewal of heart.

As for the people of God here at St. John's, let's take some time this week to pray for our Confirmation candidates and for all of us who have already received this sacrament that there will be a new outpouring of the gifts of the Spirit in our persons and community. Let us also reflect on the ways in which we do or can begin to build up Christ's Church in 1975.

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

to feed the hungry
to give drink to the thirsty
to clothe the naked
to shelter the homeless
to visit the sick
to ransom the captive
to bury the dead

Mt. 25:34-40

SPIRITUAL WORKS OF MERCY

to instruct the ignorant
to counsel the doubtful
to admonish sinners
to bear wrongs patiently
to forgive offences
to comfort the afflicted
to pray for the living and the dead

SUGGESTED READINGS:

Genesis 12:1-4
2 Tim 1:8-10
Matt. 17:1-9
The Acts of the Apostles

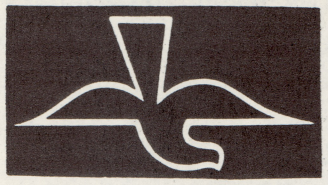
SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES:

Invite a few neighbors over to discuss the ways in which we are called to practice the spiritual and corporal works of mercy today - in our neighborhood, our parish, our community.

Have a family review of the works of mercy and choose a project for Lent related to one of them.

Are there other acts of mercy, not listed above which we could perform?

Confirmation - The Rite Of The Sacrament



Men live by signs. The Christian community has always expressed the invisible, mysterious reality of God's presence and action among us through signs. Each sacrament embodies an incarnational principle.

The invisible or supernatural dimension of human life is made visible and meaningful through visible sacraments or signs.

In Christ (God Incarnate) the invisible God is made accessible and present to men. Each sacrament is a sign of the risen Christ acting now through human words and gestures, as through material things (water, oil, bread, wine) to mediate His redemption to us. For which reason Christ is called THE sacrament of the Church.

During Vatican Council II a revision of the sacramental rites was made emphasizing that "... both texts and rites should be drawn up so that they express more clearly the holy things which they signify. Christian people, as far as possible, should be able to understand them with ease and to take part in them fully, as befits a community."

The key sign in Confirmation is the anointing with chrism. The bishop lays his hands on the head of the person who is to be confirmed, anoints the forehead with oil, and prays for the Spirit to come into his life. Sealed in Christ, we are filled with the Holy Spirit and sent forth to do the Lord's work in our everyday lives. The newly confirmed is a messenger of God's Spirit of love, peace, and brotherhood among men.

PARISH NUPTIAL

F. Joseph Laban and Jennette L. Elliott exchanged the solemn vows of marriage in our church on Saturday evening, February 15, 1975, before Fr. Harvey. Daniel Morse of Kalamazoo and Janet Burrell of Ypsilanti were the main attendants.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Joseph Laban and the late Mr. Laban of Chelsea. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Elliott of 918 Pleasant Drive, Ypsilanti.

The groom's nephew, Allen Miller, served as lector for the wedding liturgy. Mr. Melvin Light was the organist; Mrs. Ruth Lorenz served as soloist.

The newly-weds will live at 2300 Burns Avenue.

Congratulation Joe and Jennette!

St. John's Catholic Church
410 W. Cross Street
Ypsilanti, Michigan

Dear Member of St. John's Catholic Church,

A new Christian bookstore has recently opened one block east of St. John's Church on Cross Street. The purpose of this store is to be a public witness to the living reality of Jesus Christ. The store is called Logos Bookstore. It is the 45th Logos Bookstore to open since the first store opened in Ann Arbor six years ago. The word Logos is a Greek word used by the apostle John to identify Jesus.

" . . . and the word (Logos) was made flesh and blood among us, and we beheld his glory." - John 1:14

The books available at Logos are clear presentations of a Christian perspective relating to a wide range of subjects including marriage and family life, literature, psychology, and theology. Within each subject area one will find a wide theological spectrum and a healthy balance planned to provide material for discussion and Christian growth. Although books are the major vehicle by which we share the good news about Jesus Christ, cards, records, contemporary posters, jewelry, children's books, and other gift items round out the inventory at Logos Bookstore.

A special introductory offer of 10% off on everything in the store and 20% off on all Bibles, commentaries and records is now made to you and your fellow members of St. John's Catholic Church.

This introductory offer will last from Monday, February 24th through Saturday, March 8th. Please bring this letter with you. Thank you.

The store is open on Thursday and Friday nights until 9 p.m. All other days it is open from 10 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. It is closed on Sunday. Logos Bookstore is located at 515 W. Cross Street (on Cross Street between Ballard and Perrin Streets). Public parking is available less than a block from the store in the 300 block of Ballard Street (just South of Cross Street). Free parking is also available at your church parking lot, which is a half block from the store.

Your prayers are appreciated for this Christian witness to the Ypsilanti Community. I look forward to meeting you soon.

Sincerely,

Don Sommerfeld

MIA Prayer Day

February 23rd has been declared a day of prayer for the boys who are still missing in action. Governor Milliken has declared this day without making a public statement of the fact. Here at St. John's prayers will be offered for the MIA's at each of the Masses with the 11:00 a.m. Mass specifically related to these men and their families.

In the words of former POW, Jim Warner, "As a prisoner of war, I learned of many men who might very well be alive today. No one knows for certain if they are dead or alive, and the families of the missing in action continue to await word on the fate of their loved ones.

In the lenten season we recall the sacrifice of Christ for those who were lost. Let us, then, say a prayer for the lost who have sacrificed for us, that we may soon know their fate."

We ask that you keep our MIA's in your prayers, not only this weekend but until their cause has been won and we know they are all free and able to enjoy the freedoms for which they were fighting.

DISHES ANYONE?

There are a few dishes left from funeral dinners which are on the shelf at the foot of the basement stairs that are looking for owners ... perhaps you might want to claim such. There are also platters, etc., left from a certain birthday party also waiting to be claimed. Cathy Guidebeck has placed them in the same area of the basement. We have set aside this area for items to be claimed so that you only have to look in one place. Hopefully, the right dish gets to the right person... Thank you.

HAVE TIME ON YOUR HANDS??

Any parishioners with time on their hands are invited to help with the sorting and cutting of Betty Crocker Stamps. Whenever you have the chance, just come armed with scissors and goodwill from 10:00 to 12:00 Noon for the rest of the Lenten season and we will do all our work in the rectory basement workroom. We need to sort the coupons by number so that we can facilitate the counting when we are ready to send the coupons to the company.

We need about 68,000 coupons, about half of which we already have, for a 300-set of matching knives, forks, and spoons for our new kitchen. You have already been so responsive in the saving of these coupons and we are well on the way to the purchase of this silver. Won't you help now with the nitty-gritty work???

Were You There ?

Where? The Mardi Gras, of course ... it was the swingingest place in town on Feb. 8th, as the hall filled with couples hoping to get in their share of dances to the music of the STARLIGHTERS. All through the evening expressions of suprise and happiness seemed to emanate, and we are sure that those who have to come will be happy to know that all their fun and efforts resulted in $1,100.00 profit for the St. John's Renovation Drive. This was due to the many who helped shave expenses in various ways. We cannot name each individual donor because so many gave without identifying themselves, but to each we say thank you for your generosity in aiding this endeavor.

The Dance Committee certainly is to be commended. Alan Israel as Dance Chairman spent many hours in organizing the festivities. Decoration Chairperson, Cathy Guidebeck, induced her entire family to help with paper-mache heads and anything else they could think of. So we have Bill and Rose Davis, Rosie and Jerry Stauch and their 3 children, Laura, Art and Doug, Ron, Cathy, and Caroen Guidebeck and her friend, Wendy Johnston, and parishioners, Betty Caouette and Katie McDonnell to congratulate on their fantastic decoration of the hall. Some of you probably saw the after-effects at Coffee & Donuts the following morning. Add muted lights and lots of happy people and you know what the hall looked like for the evening affair.

Along with the above workers, Myron Welch, Denise, Christine, and Jennelle Israel, Dorothy Morgan, Mil Kerner, Julian Kitka, Michelle and Bill Lorenz, Lee Sanford, Bob and Joan Gillman, and Les and Joanne Craddick did all the groundwork, legwork, and backwork to the job of preparing, setting up, and helping keep things moving.

GABRIEL'S HOAGIES on Michigan Avenue practically gave us all the meat and cheese to be used, and with the expert help of Jim and Cile Soraruf who donated not only their time but all of the potato salad, the table was set as if for a banquet. Of course, if you know the catering of Soraruf's, you know what a lucious layout of foods looks like.

DIAMOND'S PIZZA on Ecorse Rd. gave us a great purchase in the beer and set-ups used. Wholesale prices were never like this!

YOUNG'S CLOTHING on Washington St. gave us the expensive mannequins to use for stage decorating properties and we are indebted to them for their help.

We ask that if you shop or eat at any of the above places, you thank them for their generosity and express your gratitude that they have helped St. John's.

We are deeply indebted to those who prepared for the occasion, those who came, who worked so hard on foods and decorations to make the evening the success it was. We only wish the hall was large enough to hold all who would like to attend.

We have already committed the STARLIGHTERS to the dances for next year, namely THE HARVEST DANCE in OCTOBER, THE NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE, and the MARDI GRAS in FEBRUARY. We hope that this gives you fair warning that there will be 3 dances at St. John's next year. Tickets will be on sale for two weeks within the parish before we open the sale to others in the community. You will have to get your tickets early so that you can get in on one of the big ones for 75-76. The crowds are growing from the parish, from other parishes, and from the community.

We have Dan Paffel to thank for the dance activities of the parish. He had been wanting a Mardi Gras at St. John's for a long time and finally last year, despite much opposition and people saying that dances would not work at this parish, went ahead and made plans. His success gave us the impetus to improve on for this year, and each dance has been bigger and better than the last one. Hats off to people like Dan who know when a project will be a happening at St. John's.
